Re: Application of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company
For Adjustments and Increases in its Electric Rate Schedules and Tariffs
DOCKET NO. 2007-229-E

Dear Mr. Terreni:

Regarding the progress of the Navy's pro hac vice application, I have located a Navy attorney who works for the Navy in Charleston, SC, is a member of the South Carolina Bar, and is willing to sponsor me for Pro Hac Vice admission for the above-referenced proceeding. Under Rule 404 (F), Responsibilities of Attorney of Record for Attorney Appearing Pro Hac Vice, the rule states that the South Carolina attorney of record shall attend all proceedings in the matter unless the tribunal specifically excuses the South Carolina attorney of record from proceeding.

The Navy requests that the Commission consider a request to excuse the South Carolina attorney of record for the majority of the proceedings. Our request envisions that the Navy will arrange for the attorney of record to appear on the first day of the hearing to introduce Ms. Van Dyke and to state on the record that he is my sponsor for this proceeding, and from that point be excused from attending the proceeding. As his place of business is with Navy Office of General Counsel in Charleston, SC, he would be available to drive back to Columbia should that prove necessary during the proceedings.

As basis for this request, Ms. Van Dyke has appeared previously before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina and is familiar with the proceedings of the Commission, and is known to the parties in this proceeding. The attorney of record three years ago did attend all the proceedings, and was not called upon to speak or act in any way throughout the proceedings. While the attorney of record is willing to sit through the proceedings if the Commission requires this, his time could be more productively utilized if he is not required to physically attend the proceedings, after an initial appearance to introduce the undersigned.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,
